FROM THE EAST.

Lebanon, Pa., March 23d, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS GAZETTE:—

In my last letter I predicted a great change in our county in the minds of the people relative to political affairs.

The election of Friday last has made those predictions good throughout the entire county, and in our borough we have for the first time for a number of years, seven or eight at least, elected a Chief Burgess. We also elected one councilman out of two, the assistant Burgess, two School Directors out of three, along with our entire west ward ticket, carrying the borough ticket all save two, one councilman and one School Director as before stated. The Democratic gain in the Borough since last fall is seventy-three, and the gain throughout the county tallies with them.

We begin to hope for the future of our distracted country when the strongholds of Republicanism are thus giving signs of a healthy change in the body politic. Thanks to our organization we were enabled to meet the enemies of our present form of government and combat them at every point, which rendered victory easy. We intend to keep the ball rolling, and not let the interests of our people flag until the Keystone of the Federal arch has redeemed herself. We will stand united in the Democratic ranks to struggle against Congressional usurpation, party plunderings, and the personal ambitions of the few bad men who are now controlling the destinies of our nation and rendering the name of a citizen of the United States a term of reproach.

We have no sympathy with the legislation that gives to the wealthy by robbing from the needy. We oppose giving to the wealthy bondholders who are revelling in their suddenly acquired wealth a bonus of forty cents on a dollar, because they loaned money to the government.

We cry against the oppression of such laws as give to such men gold in payment of their interest on bonds that are by enactment free from taxation, which is now quoted at 1.40, when others equally as deserving as they are, by the enactment of the same body, are obliged to be content to take their payment of debts in a depreciated currency.

The unfair legislation that robs the poor man of all, in order to enrich still more his richer fellow citizen, must be stopped, and the suffering masses are again looking forward with hope to the democracy to rid the country of the rascally nest of public plunderers who are destroying all its vital power.

Corruption stares us in the face at every point, and for the past few years the Republican party has been nothing but an immense swindle, and the infernal thieves boldly pronounced every discovery of their peculations democratic lies, trusting always thus to deceive their deluded followers to vote for them and thereby give to them another lease of power and plunder.

But the ways of truth, though sometimes slow, are always sure, and the elections lately held over the country give evidence of a healthy change in this direction. God grant us a speedy deliverance from Republican misrule and plunder.

Truly our people will soon be made to feel that they are ruled by men who have no care for their interests, when it requires all their efforts to keep body and soul united.

Members of Congress are enacting a farce in impeaching the President, thereby neglecting the material interests of the country, while the poor are everywhere suffering from the high prices of food and wearing apparel.

The Republican party has a multitude of sins to answer for before the tribunal of public opinion, that will overwhelm it, and the name republican used in a party sense will be a term of approbrium. There will be a time when the descendants of the Shoddyites of our day, will be pointed at with scorn, as the offspring of the plunderers of their country, while its distractions led it to the very brink of dissolution.

Yours Truly,
SOLDIER.

THE IMPEACHMENT.

Answer of the President.

Thirty Days Extension of Time Asked for by the President and Refused.

[Reported for the Baltimore Sun.]

WASHINGTON, March 23.

At 1 P. M. to-day the President pro tem. of the Senate vacated the chair and the Chief Justice entered and took his seat.

The Chief Justice rapped the court to order and directed the sergeant-at-arms to make proclamation.

The Sergeant-at-Arms.—Hear ye! hear ye! hear ye! All persons are commanded to keep silence while the Senate of the United States is sitting on the trial of Andrew Johnson, President of the United States.

The managers of impeachment were announced, and following them the House of Representatives.

The President's counsel entered and took their seats.

Mr. Doolittle, of Wisconsin, was sworn in as a member of the court.

Mr. Davis made a motion as follows: "The constitution having invested the Senate with the power to try cases of impeachment, and ten States (naming them) being unrepresented, and each State being entitled to two Senators, therefore the question is whether the Senate, as at present constituted, has the power to try the articles of impeachment preferred against Mr. Johnson."

The motion was rejected by a vote of 49 to 2—the latter being Mr. Davis and Mr. McCreery.

The Chair notified the counsel for the President that the court was ready to receive the answer of the President.

Mr. Stanbery rose and said, in accordance with the order of the Senate the counsel for the President had devoted every hour that they could to the preparation of the answer, depriving themselves even of needful rest for that purpose.

The answer was then read by Mr. Curtis.

THE PRESIDENT'S ANSWER.

The following is, in substance, the answer of the President to the article of impeachment exhibited against him by the House of Representatives: For answer to the first article he says that Edwin M. Stanton was appointed Secretary for the Department of War on the 15th day of January, A. D. 1862, by Abraham Lincoln, then President of the United States, during the first term of his Presidency, and was commissioned according to the constitution and laws of the United States to hold the said office during the pleasure of the President: that the law of 1789, passed by the first Congress of the United States, creating the office of Secretary of War, provides that he should perform his duties according to the second section of the second article of the constitution, in such manner as the President shall, from time to time, order and instruct, acting, according to uniform practice, as one of the President's advisers; acting also for the President in matters pertaining to the Department, subordinate to the constitution and laws for the conduct of the Secretary of War. Further, that when by the death of Mr. Lincoln, April 15, 1865, the respondent became President, Mr. Stanton was holding office under the appointment above mentioned, and not having been removed from office by the respondent, Mr. Stanton continued on at the pleasure of the President, and at no time received any other appointment except as before stated. Further, that on and prior to the 5th of Agust, 1867, the respondent, President of the United States, responsible for Mr. Stanton's official acts, became satisfied that he could not allow the said Stanton to continue to hold the office of Secretary of the Department of War without hazard of the public interests; that the relations between the said Stanton and the President no longer permitted the President to resort to him for advice, or to be, in the judgment of the President, safely responsible for his conduct of the affairs of the Department of War, as by law required, in accordance with the orders and instructions of the President, that the respondent then considered and determined that the said Stanton ought no longer to hold the office, and quotes the note to the secretary, dated August 5th, 1867, requesting him to resign, also the answer of Mr. Stanton refusing to do so, "for public considerations of a high character;" that the respondent, having regard for his responsibility, then held that it was impossible, consistent with public interests, to allow Mr. Stanton to continue to hold the office, and forthwith set about to decide what acts were necessary to cause him to surrender the office.

The respondent believes it to have been practically settled by the first Congress, and acted on in many cases by each Congress and Pressdent from the first, that the power at any and all times of removing from office all executive officers for cause is to be judged of by the President alone. This respondent had, in pursuance of the constitution, required the opinion of each principal officers of the executive department upon this question of constitutional executive power and duty, and had been advised by each of them, including the said Stanton, Secretary for the Department of War, that under the constitution of the United States this power was lodged by the constitution in the President of the United States and that consequently it could be lawfully exercised by him, and the Congress could not deprive him thereof; and this respondent, in his capacity of President of the United States, and because in that capacity he was both enabled and bound to use his best judgment upon this question, did in good faith and with an honest desire to arrive at the truth, come to the conclusion and opinion, and did make the same known to the honerable the Senate of the United States by a message on the 2d day of March, 1867. That the respondent was then aware of the provisions of the tenure-of-office law, passed March 2d, 1867, by a constitutional majority of Congress as follows:

"That any person holding any civil office to which he has been appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and every person who shall hereafter be appointed to and such office, and shall become duly qualified to act therein, is and shall be entitled to hold such office until a successor shall have been in like manner appointed and duly qualified except as herein otherwise provided. Provided that the Secretary of State, of the Treasury, of War, of the Navy, and of the Interior, the Postmaster General and the Attorney General, shall hold their offices respectively for and during the term of the President by whom they may have been appointed, and for one month thereafter, subject to removal by and with the advice and consent of the senate."

That the respondent was also aware that this act was understood and intended to be an expression of the opinion of Congress that the power to remove executive officers for cause might by law be taken from the President and vested in him and the Senate jointly, and although this respondent had arrived at and still retained the opinion above expressed, and verily believed, as he still believes, that the said first section of the last mentioned act was and is wholly inoperative and void by reason of its conflict with the constitution of the United States, yet, inasmuch as the same had been enacted by the constitutional majority in each of the two houses of that Congress, this respondent considered it to be proper to examine and decide whether the perticular case of the said Stanton on which it was this respondent's duty to act, was within or without the terms of that first section of the act; or, if untrue, whether the President had not the power, according to the terms of the act, to remove the said Stanton from the office of Secretary for the Department of War; and having in his capacity of President of the United States so examined and considered, did form the opinion that the case of the said Stanton and his tenure of office were not affected by the first section of the last named act.

That although a case thus existed calling for the exercise of the executive power of removal, under the constitution, and believing that Mr. Stanton's case was not effected by the first section of the tenure-of-office act, the respondent desired, if possible, to avoid any question of the construction and effect of that law, and also the broader question of the executive power conferred on the President by the constitution to remove the principal officer of one of the executive and legislative departments of the government, he desired that they should be in some proper way submittted to the judicial department, entrusted by the constitution with the duty of determining finally the construction and effect of all acts of Congress, and comparing them with the constitution itself, with a view of pronouncing them inoperative when found in conflict with that fundamental law which the people have enacted for the government of all their servants—and to these ends,

First, that through the action of the senate of the United States, the absolute duty of the President to substitute some fit person in place of Mr. Stanton, as one of his advisers, and as a principal subordinate officer whose official conduct he was responsible for, and had a lawful right to control, might, if possible, be accomplished without the necessity of raising any one of the questions aforesaid; and, second, if this duty could not be so performed, these questions, or such of them as might necessarily arise, should be judicially determined; and for no other end or purpose this respondent, as President of the United States, on the 12th day of August, 1867, seven days after the reception of the letter of the said Stanton of the 5th of August, hereinbefore stated, did issue to the said Stanton the order requiring him to turn over the War Department to General Grant, as Secretary of War ad interim, to which Mr. Stanton yielded "under protest to superior force." Further, that the respondent believes that the executive power of removal confided to him by the Constitution includes the power of the suspension from office at the pleasure of the President, and that this respondent by the order aforesaid did suspend the said Stanton from office, not until the next meeting of the Senate, or until the Senate shall have acted upon the case, but by force of the power and authority vested in him by the constitution and laws of the United States, indefinitely and at the pleasure of the President; and the order, in form aforesaid, was made known to the to the Senate of the United States on the 12th day of Dec., A. D. 1867, That by his order of August, 12th, 1867, the respondent authorized General Grant to perform the duty of Secretary of War ad interim according to law—not until the senate should act on the case, but at the pleasure of the President, subject only to the limitation of six months, and a copy of the last named order was made known to the Senate of the United States on the 12th day of December, A. D., 1867; and in pursuance of the design and intention aforesaid, if it should become necessary to submit the said question to a judicial determination, this respondent, at or near the date of the last mentioned order, did make known such his purpose to obtain a judicial decision.

That after the President's message to Congress of December 12th, 1867, making known the order above cited, the President was compelled either to allow the said Stanton to resume the said office and remain therein, contrary to the settled convictions of the President respecting the powers confided to him and the duties required of him by the constitution of the United States; and contrary to the opinion that the first section of the tenure-of-office act did not affect the case of the said Stanton, and contrary to the fixed belief of the President that he could no longer advise with or trust, or be responsible for the said Stanton in the office of the said Secretary for the Department of War, or else he was compelled to take such steps as might, in the judgment of the President, be lawful and necessary to raise for a judicial decision the question affecting the lawful right of the said Stanton to resume the said office, or the power of the said Stanton to persist in refusing to quit the said office if he should persist in actually refusing to quit the same; and to this end, and to this end only, this respondent did, on 21st day of February, 1868, issue the order for the removal of said Stanton in the said first article mentioned and set forth, and the order authorizing the said Lorenzo Thomas to act as Secretary of War ad interim in the said second article set forth.

And this respondent, proceeding to answer specifically each substantive allegation in the said first article, says he denies that the said Stanton, on the 21st day of February, 1868, was lawfully in posession of the said office of Secretary for the Department of War. He denies that the said Stanton, on the day last mentioned, was lawfully entitled to hold the said office against the will of the President of the United States. He denies that said order for the removal of the said Stanton was unlawfully issued. He denies that the said order was issued with intent to violate the act entitled "An act to regulate the tenure of certain civil offices." He denies that the said order was a violation of the last mentioned act. He denies that the said order was a violation of the Constitution of the United States, or of any law thereof, or of his oath of office. He denies that the said order was issued with intent to violate the Constitution of the United States, or any law thereof, or this respondent's oath of office; and he respectfully but earnestly insists that not only was it issued by him in the performance of what he believed to be an imperative official duty, but in the performance of what this honorable court will consider was, in in point of fact, an imperative official duty; and he denies that any and all substantive matters in the said first article contained, in manner and form as the same are therein stated set forth, do by law constitute a high misdemeanor in office, within the true intent and meaning of the Constitution of the United States.

In answer to the second article of impeachment, the President admits that he appointed Gen. Lorenzo Thomas Secretary of War ad interim., without the advice and consent of the Senate, for the reason that there was a vacancy in the office of Secretary of War, and that he had the right to appoint General Thomas under the constitution.

That notwithstanding the Senate of the United States was then in session, it was lawful and according to long and well-established usage to empower and authorize the said Thomas to act as Secretary of War ad interim.

That if the said act regulating the tenure of civil offices be held to be a valid law, no provision of the same was violated by the issuing of said order by the designation of said Thomas to act as Secretary of War ad interim.

In answer to the third article, he abides by his answers to the first and second, so far as the allegations contained in them are pertinent thereto.—He denies that his order to Thomas amounted to an appointment in the legal and constitutional meaning of that word.

In answer to the fourth article, he denies that he did unlawfully conspire with Thomas or others to prevent or hinder Stanton from holding office as Secretary of War, or that he was guilty of a high crime or misdemeanor. He denies that Stanton was Secretary of War at that time, and that he did not advise Thomas or any other person or persons to use any coercion to obtain possession of the Department of War; that no force was used by Thomas in obedience to the President, and there was no agreement between him and Thomas to use any force whatever. The allegations of said article that there was an intent to use force is wholly unsustained.

In answer to the sixth article, respondent denies that he entered at any time with any person or persons into a conspiracy to defeat the operation of the tenure-of-office law, and that there is no statement of the steps taken in pursuance of such alleged design.

In answer to the seventh article, he denies that he attempted at any time to take possession of the property of the War Department; that he did not commit a crime and misdemeanor, and refers to other articles to show his intent.

In answer to the eighth article, he denies that he made an attempt to take possession of money and records of the War Department; or that he acted in an unconstitutional manner.

In answer to the ninth article Mr. Stanbery read the President's note to Gen. Emory, and stated that the President merely wished to consult with Emory on some matters pertaining to the administration of his department. Gen. Emory called his (the President's) attention to the law directing that orders to the army shall be sent through Gen. Grant, to which the President replied that he considered it in conflict with the Constitutioh. The article, after detailing the conversation between the President and Gen. Emory, denied the allegation that the respondent had attempted to interfere with or influence Gen. Emory in an unconstitutional manner, and that his opinion there expressed was what he honestly and sincerely believed.

Mr. Evarts then proceeded to read the answer to the tenth article. The article gave the history of the committee, and stated that, in reply to the address of the committee, he made certain remarks. He denied that he was correctly reported on that occasion, and that the remarks attributed to him are not his precise words. He also denied that the speech attributed to him at Cleveland was correct, and that as contained in the articles of impeachment gave no true representation of his meaning. Respondent also denies the accuracy of the St. Louis speech, and begs that if admit ed it shall be all considered, and no part of it expunged. Respondent further alleged that he had communicated his views to Congress relative to the non-representation of certain States, and that such statements were made in accordance with his rights as an American citizen, and as President of the United States. Furthermore, the views and opinions expressed by him in these speeches are the same as he had expressed to Congress, and should be so considered. In further answer to the tenth article, in consideration of his duties to the people, he had and has the right of, on proper occasions, expressing opinions to the people relative to the duty and character of Congress, the views, motives and aims of public men; and that upholding the liberty of speech and the liberty of the people, he cannot but hold that such was and is his clear right and duty. Therefore he insists that he but exercised the right of any citizen in thus addressing his fellow-citizens, and therefore is not subject to impeachment or other action at law.

In answer to the eleventh article, respondent denies that he declared or affirmed that the 29th Congress was not a legal Congress, or that he made any allegation contained in said article. In the address then made he said nothing of the competency of said Congress to pass any laws while Southern States were unrepresented. He denied that he had attempted to defeat the operation of the act providing for the more efficient government of the rebel States, or the act making appropriations for the army and navy, and he refers to other articles to show his intent. Further answering, the matters contained in the 11th article do not name, designate, or define any attempt, design or device to render him guilty of the high crimes and misdemeanors alleged against him.

Upon the conclusion of the reading of the answer, at 3 P. M., the question was put to the Senate by the Chief Justice upon its reception, and it was carried.

The Chief Justice put the question whether the Senate would receive this answer of the President of the United States, and order it to be filed, which was decided in the affirmative.

Mr. Boutwell asked that a copy of the answer of the President be furnished the managers of impeachment, and stated that they thought they would be able to file their replication at 1 o'clock to-morrow.

Mr. Evarts said the counsel for the President think it proper, unless some objection is made, to bring to the attention of the court the time which shall be allowed the President and his counsel after the replication is filed. The counsel had had no time to consider the various questions of law and evidence. They therefore submit a motion now that the counsel be allowed thirty days' time in which to prepare for the trial.

The Chief Justice said the first thing in order was the motion of Mr. Boutwell that a copy of the answer be furnished the managers, which was agreed to.

Mr. Evarts then submitted a paper, signed by the counsel, stating that thirty days time is necessary.

Mr. Howard moved that the motion for an extension of time be laid on the table until to-morrow.

Mr. Bingham said the managers of impeachment were ready to argue the motion now.

Mr. Howard then withdrew his motion.

Senator Henderson offered an order that the consideration of the application for the extension of time by the counsel for the President be postponed until after the filing of the replication.

Mr. Butler hoped the day would be fixed now when the trial was to proceed. The order of Mr. Henderson was then rejected, as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Anthony, Buckalew, Cattell, Cole, Dixon, Doolittle, Edmunds, Fessenden, Fowler, Frelinghuyson, Grimes, Henderson, Hendricks Johnson, McCreery, Morrill of Maine, Norton, Patterson, of Tennessee, Ross, Saulsbury, Sherman, Sprague, Trumbull, Van Winkle, and Vickers—25.

Nays—Messrs Bayard, Cameron, Chandler, Conkling, Conness, Cattell, Cragin, Davis, Drake, Ferry, Harlan, Howard, Howe, Morgan, Morrill of Vermont, Morton, Nye, Patterson of New Hampshire, Pomeroy, Ramsay, Stewart, Sumner, Thayer, Tipton, Willey, Williams, Wilson, and Yates—28.

Mr. Howard moved to lay the motion of the counsel for an extension of time on the table.

Mr. Drake submitted that the motion of Mr. Howard was not in order, and that upon all motions submitted by the counsel for the defense or the managers of impeachment, the Senate must take a direct vote.

The Chief Justice decided that the point of order was well taken.

The motion of the counsel for thirty days' extension of time was then rejected by yeas 12, nays 41, as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Bayard, Buckalew, Davis, Dixon, Doolittle, Hendricks, Johnson, McCreery, Norton, Patterson of Tennessee, Saulsbury and Vickers—12.

Nays—Messrs. Cameron, Cattell, Chandler, Cole, Conkling, Conness, Corbett, Cragin, Drake, Edmunds, Ferry, Fessenden, Fowler, Frelinghuysen, Grimes, Harlan, Henderson, Howard, Howe, Morgan, Morrill of Maine, Morrill of Vermont, Morton, Nye, Patterson of New Hampshire, Pomeroy, Ramsey, Ross, Sherman, Sprague, Stewart, Sumner, Thayer, Tipton, Trumbull, Van Winkle, Willey Williams, Wilson and Yates—41.

Mr. Evarts then rose and said on the part of the counsel for REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT, Civil Liberty and Constitutional Rights!

NO STANDING ARMY!
NO FREEDMEN'S BUREAU!

White Men Must Rule America!

"Light, more light!" is the startling cry of the honest people groping in the darkness of Radicalism. "Light, more light!" shouts the groaning taxpayer, bending under the load which a Radical Congress has heaped upon him. "Light, more light!" is the pleading cry that comes to us from those who earnestly seek a remedy for the disease that is tugging at the vitals of the nation. Look and ye shall see! Read and ye shall know! The BEDFORD GAZETTE, for the Presidential Campaign, will be a complete compendium of political news, speeches, documents and every thing that pertains to a political canvass in the columns of a weekly newspaper. Not only should every Democrat have his county newspaper, during the coming campaign, but he should likewise make it a point to furnish his Republican neighbor a copy. This is the plan upon which our opponents have acted for years, and it is about time that Democrats do something of the same sort. NOW, GO TO WORK and put your Democratic newspaper into the hands of every Republican who will read. If you will do this you will accomplish more good in six months than you will by any other means in six years. Democratic politicians, throughout the county, are enabled, by the above low terms, to circulate Democratic newspapers at a very small cost. We appeal to them to see to getting up clubs, and to see to it in time. Now is the time to sow the seed. After a little while the heat of passion and prejudice will beam upon the public mind in all its intense fierceness, and then seed-time will have passed. Friends, let us hear from you!

OUR NEIGHBORS.

The Indiana Democrat has been enlarged and greatly improved. It is now printed on a Montague Power Press, which, Bro. Sansom says, works "like a charm." We are glad to note this evidence of prosperity on the part of the Democrat, and must say for the Democracy of Indiana county, that they show admirable pluck. Success to them and their excellent organ.

The Hollidaysburg Register has been purchased by David and Jacob Z. Over, of this place, and will hereafter be published by them. We wish the firm success in every thing except their politics.

We have received several numbers of the Bedford County Press, published at Bloody Run, this county, by J. C. Long & Co. The Press makes a very creditable appearance and is a good digest of the news. We hope it will be sustained, as a thriving and enterprising community like that of Bloody Run, certainly deserve a local newspaper.

HIT 'EM AGAIN!

The present State Legislature is getting some unpleasant hints from the Radical press. The Delaware Republican wants to know why it doesn't adjourn, and the Bedford Inquirer, of last week, says,

"The cowardice of the Pennsylvania Legislature is a disgrace to the great Commonwealth."

"Cowardice" is good; "disgrace" is better. Hit 'em again, boys!

We call attention to the correspondence of the Pittsburg Commercial, (Radical) copied into this issue of the GAZETTE, in regard to the extravagance of the State Legislature.

"STRICTLY A POLITICAL PAPER."

"The Devil was sick, the Devil a monk would be,
The Devil got well, the devil a monk was he."

Satan has taken to preaching. The Bedford Inquirer, of last week, lectures us on publishing too many political articles, "very well written ones, too." Now, we shall treat our neighbors better. We do not object to their paper on account of the number of their political articles, and as to the quality of them, we are quite sure we have no right to complain. So long as their style of writing involves nothing more dangerous than the chaste and pleasant expletives of that famous Fishwoman's Dictionary (to be had at the Inquirer Book Store) we shall not be alarmed. Scarcely an issue of their paper appears which does not contain the epithet, "Copperhead," or which does not heap the foulest abuse upon the Democratic party, or which does not seek to misrepresent Democratic officials, or which does not approve such suicidal measures as the continuance of the Freedmen's Bureau, the keeping-up of a standing army, the government of the excluded States by Congress, and the thousand and one deviltries of Thad. Stevens and his fellow conspirators against the Constitution. All this is "strictly political." The editors of the Inquirer have no more faith in the justice and propriety of these things than we have. They would never have dreamt of advocating them, had not their party committed itself to them. But, as the Inquirer is "strictly a political paper," it goes the whole hog, Thad. Stevens, Freedmen's Bureau, Standing Army, Negro Suffrage and all. Still we do not complain of this. Not at all. Why should we, when we know that every issue of the Inquirer but proves to its Republican readers that what we charge upon the Radical party is true?

The Inquirer wants to know whether it pays Democrats to be Democrats. Well, we rather think it pays at least as well, in this county, as it does Republicans to be Republicans. The editors of that paper evidently judge every body else by their own standard. Because they are selfish, they conclude all mankind must be likewise. It never occurs to them that men who cling to principle, through good and through evil report, amid the storm of war as well as in the sunshine of peace, who defied the mob, laughed at the bayonet and dreaded not the prison cell, are governed by a higher motive than dollars and cents. The fact is, the Inquirer men find that they cannot drive Democrats from the Right, that they have been beaten and always will be beaten on the issue they have made, and, that the hope of gaining their point, by appealing to the selfishness of human nature, alone remains to them. Their political articles have not been a success. Hence, they are slightly indisposed, in that way, just now. "The Devil got sick, the Devil a monk would be." But, they'll recover after awhile, and their paper will again be filled with slang and abuse. "The Devil got well, the devil a monk was he."

We cannot refrain from copying the concluding parts of the Inquirer's article. We call special attention to the following:

"If these views are correct, and we are led to believe that they are in ninety-nine cases out of every hundred, then the course of the Gazette has been absolutely of no advantage to you, but on the other hand, downright loss.—Let us suppose that it had, during all this time, consistently advocated an improved system of Agriculture in addition to its politics, would it not have had a very beneficial effect upon the industrial prosperity of the county?—Suppose it had advocated the location of iron manufactories in the county as earnestly as it has advocated politics, does any one doubt that we would have a large number of these establishments located here with our facilities? Again, had it paid as much attention to the building of a railroad through the county, as it has to the election of Democrats, from the highest position down to township clerk, would our people not to-day be enjoying all the advantages which such improvements would bring? Certainly, there cannot be a doubt in regard to it."

Now, aren't we somebody? We could have under-drained, limed, plastered, sub-soiled, clovered, and post-and-rail-fenced this whole county, we could have built iron manufactories, nay, we could have constructed a railroad through the county, if we had only let Democrats take care of themselves, and turned our attention to writing editorials on Agriculture, Furnaces and Locomotives. Does any one "doubt it?" What a poor, pitiful, powerless concern the Inquirer is, compared with this machine of ours! That paper can't build furnaces and construct railroads! We can! Hurrah for our side! There is one thing, however, the editors of the Inquirer could do; they possess the stuff to do it; in fact they are made of that sort of thing; they could do Agriculture a great service, by devoting themselves to the fertilization of the soil.

—Mr. Cragin introduced a bill in the U. S. Senate, on Monday, appropriating about $60,000 to defray the expenses of the impeachment trial.

THE PITTSBURG AND CONNELLSVILLE RAILROAD.

It looks now as if this road would be built in a short time. The city of Baltimore has retired its first mortgage upon the road, for one million dollars, and has also voted to advance several millions more. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, it is said, have concluded to loan the P. & C. an additional million. Besides these, there are heavy idividual subscriptions by the "solid men" of Baltimore. We are informed that the whole line will be put under contract within two months, and the work will be pushed forward as rapidly as possible.

It is, perhaps, not generally known to our people, that this road will run a distance of about seventeen miles within the limits of Bedford county. Yet it strikes only the extreme Southwestern corner of the county, and is confined to a single township, Londonderry. Nevertheless, the construction of the road will be of much benefit to the Southern half of the Western end of the county, as it will give the people of that section, a much more accessible market, and thus enhance the value of their property.

But, meanwhile, what becomes of the good old borough of Bedford? A railroad depot East of us, drains the county for miles around it, of all the produce and trade, whilst the P. & C. South West of us, will sweep all in that direction. Hollidaysburg has long since monopolized the trade of the Northern districts of the county, whilst Cumberland, Md., drains the Southern. Thus, Bedford, already crippled as a place of trade, will be left high and dry, if the townships West of us once get their outlet to Baltimore. Now, we do not make this statement, in order to oppose the construction of the P. & C. R. R. Far be it from us to do any such thing. For, we are anxious, almost nervously anxious, that that road shall be built, and built soon.—But we desire to call the attention of the moneyed men, the business men, the property holders, and the people generally, in this town of ours, and in the country round about, to the fact that if they do not "put their shoulders to the wheel" and build a railroad of their own, they might as well sell out and leave. But, how can we do it? asks one. You can do it with money and you have the money. Some of you can give large sums, others not so large and yet others a little. One hundred thousand dollars will grade the road to Bridgeport. You can mortgage the road for the iron and rolling-stock. The one hundred thousand dollars can be raised, if the proper effort be made. But there must be unity of effort, concert of action, and tenacity of purpose. Public meetings, gaseous speeches, resolutions mild as milk, with nothing characteristic but nervous fear of large corporations, will not build railroads. A half a dozen earnest men, with their hearts in the work, can effect more than all your hydra-headed meetings. Let those who believe that the Bridgeport connection can be made, meet together, form a plan of action, and then execute their plan. We are in earnest about this matter, and will do our part.

HOW ARE YOU, RENEGADES?

The Inquirer, of last week, has the following:

"Don't you know that the positions which are not taken up by the crafty leaders, are given to the weak-kneed Republicans to buy them up? You may have served the party for fifty years faithfully, but leave one of this peculiar gentry turn up, and he must be cared for; they know your vote to be safe, and by flattering the weak-kneed gentleman, they make sure of his vote and that, perhaps, of some of his friends, and, mark it, there is always one of this class to be bought up. The Republicans have done this same thing before now, but we despise the policy. Firstly, because it is injustice to those who have kept up the organization for years, and, secondly, because men bought up in this way are mere weathercocks."

How are you, John Cessna, W. M. Hall & Co? How are you, renegades, you who have been hunting office in the Radical party ever since you left the Democrats? How are you, "weathercocks?"

IMPEACHMENT.

There is nothing new concerning the Impeachment farce, except that Beast Butler opened the case on Monday, in a harangue which occupied five hours in delivery. "The murderer of an innocent woman," as Butler styled Bingham, some time ago, will close the case on the part of the "Managers." Great God! Think of such devils in human shape as Stevens, Butler and Bingham impeaching anybody! It is Satan rebuking sin!

—Western papers profess to believe that the bloodiest Indian war on record will commence about the middle of April.

—The Democracy of Marietta, Lancaster county, carried the borough ticket last week—the first time for many years.

—The Democracy of Greene county carried all the townships but two, last week, with very large gains.

LEGISLATIVE EXTRAVAGANCE!

The Appropriation Bill in the Senate.

An Increase of $200,000.

Special Correspondence Pittsburg Commercial.

HARRISBURG, PA., March 24, 1868.

The Senate took up the general appropriation bill this morning, Senator Randall, of Schuylkill, in the chair, in Committee of the Whole, and has been engaged all day in its consideration in Committee of the Whole. The Finance Committee of the Senate reported several amendments to the bill as it passed the House. Amongst these amendments are the following: Salary of the Auditor General raised from twenty-three hundred to thirty five hundred dollars; salary of Surveyor General raised from two thousand to two thousand five hundred dollars; as compensation for his services in the sale of the agricultural land scrip. The salary of each messenger in the several departments was raised from eight to nine hundred dollars. The Governor is authorized to employ a temporary clerk at a salary not exceeding one hundred and twenty-five dollar per month. This is an addition to his Private Secretary. The senate also added a messenger to the attorney General's office, and attached six hundred and forty dollars salary to it. Also made an appropriation of eleven hundred dollars for some kind of Paris clock that is stuck up in the office, and a new heating apparatus that has been introduced at somebody's suggestion. Six thousand five hundred dollars were also added to the tenth section for the historical department, two thousand of which is for the salary of the State Historian and the balance for clerk hire. The salary of the Deputy State Superintendent of Common Schools was raised from eighteen hundred to two thousand dollars. Fifty thousand dollars were added to the appropriation for the soldiers' orphan department, and one hundred thousand dollars taken off the appropriation to common schools—making the former four hundred and fifty thousad and the latter five hundred thousand dollars. The Senate committee raised the salary of the assistant and transcribing clerks of the Senate and House one hundred dollars each, and the Sergeant-at-Arms, Chief Doorkeeper, messenger and assistant messenger, Postmaster and assistant, each two hundred dollars. It also added seventeen thousand dollars for boilers, and for hospital bathing room and chapel for the Western Penitentiary, and forty-five thousand dollars additional for repairs and alternation of block number one in the Eastern Penitentiary, making the entire amount of appropriation to the Eastern Penitentiary sixty-five thousand, and to the Western thirty-eight thousand dollars. Several other additional appropriations were made by the Senate Committee, but they are comparatively unimportant. The foregoing are the principal. In committee of the Whole the Senate increased the salary of the judges of the Supreme Court, from five thousand five hundred, to seven thousand five hundred dollars.

Without adding up the several items, I would suppose the additional appropriations made by the Senate will amount to one hundred and fifty thousand, if not two hundred thousand dollars. I presume the bill will pass the Senate finally pretty much as it passed the Committee of the Whole. The section appropriating twenty-five thousand dollars to the School for feeble-minded children, at Media—which, by the way, is an increase of nine thousand dollars over the amount agreed to by the House—gave rise to a protracted discussion. Serious charges were made both in the House, and Senate in relation to that institution. Without knowing anything, personally, about the matter, I would suggest that there has been too much smoke about that institution this session to justify the belief that there is no fire.

ROBBERIES AT CUMBERLAND, MD.—A series of daring burglaries were perpetrated at Cumberland, Md., on Sunday and Monday nights, the particulars of which are thus given in the Alleganian:

Mr. Philip Doerr, occupying a room on the second floor of the house of Mr. Cole, North Centre street, sustained the loss of a watch and a small sum of money, which were taken from his pants lying near his bedside. Mrs. George Roebuck, also in the same neighborhood, had a watch taken from her bedchamber, which was hanging immedately over her head. Mr. Martin Herpich, the proprietor of a small grocery store, likewise on Centre street, was the unfortunate loser of $88, taken from his pocket. The brewery of Mrs. Beck was also visited, and here the parties helped themselves liberally to beer, but did not disturb the inmates of the dwelling adjoining. Mr. G. B. W. Roper, clerk in the boot and shoe store of Mr. C. W. Brengle, had a suit of clothing taken from near his bed, the impression in this case being that the burglars wanted to get possession of the store key, but in this they failed, as the key dropped from the pocket of the coat when they seized it, and was found in the morning lying on the chair from which the clothing was removed. A set of jewelry was taken from the residence of Mr. John F. Johnson, the property of a female member of his family. The dwelling of Mr. McCleve, Decatur street, was also entered, but the family, hearing a noise in the lower part of the house, got up, when the burglars hastily decamped, without securing any booty.

CHARGES AGAINST JUDGE UNDERWOOD.—The Richmond Dispatch of yesterday contains a letter from John Hawxhurst, of Alexandria, charging Judge Underwood with an attempt to bribe and control the radical vote of Virginia for Judge Chase for President. The matter, we are informed by telegraph, was prominently before the convention yesterday, based probably upon Hawxhurst's letter. Hawxhurst declares that the following took place at a small private meeting to which the narrator had been invited:

"Judge Underwood said, 'We can have money enough if we are in favor of a certain man for President.' A silence of a few moments was broken by some one asking, who that man was? Judge Underwood replied, 'Chase, that he had no money, but Sprague had, and would give one hundred thousand dollars for the use of the party in the State,' I do not think any one expressed assent or dissent. After a short embarrassed silence, a still more embarrassed attempt at conversation, the company broke up. I was afterward told that it was understood that if Chase should become President, Judge Underwood was to take his place as Chief Justice. With all justice to Chief Justice Chase and Senator Sprague I will here state that I was never satisfied that they knew anything of this offer, believing rather that it came from the inordinate ambition of Judge Underwood, who thought to recommend himself to the good graces of Chase, and in this way might possibly get the nomination to the Senate for Chief Justice, or at least continue his almost unlimited control of federal appointments in Virginia.

"JOHN HAWXHURST."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FACTS.

That we have unequalled facilities for conducting business to the advantage both of ourselves and patrons, we submit the following TRUTHS—well known as such to the entire business community.

1st. We have abundant cash capital, therefore—
2d. We are enabled to Buy for Cash exclusively, consequently at the lowest possible prices, with the markets of the entire world to select from.
3d. In this particular WE HAVE ADVANTAGES shared by no other house in our business.
4th. We sell for cash exclusively—therefore at the lowest possible prices—having no losses incurred by selling on credit, to provide for.
5th We have a business experience of a quarter of a century, having been longer established than any house in our trade in Philadelphia.
6th. Our business is thoroughly systematized, the result of long experience, which has taught us what the wants of the public are, and how best to meet them.
7th. We employ the best talent in all departments, our garments are therefore unsurpassed in style, fit and workmanship.
8th. Our business is large and constantly, increasing, enabling us to keep at all times the largest, best assorted, and most complete stock of MEN'S, YOUTHS', and BOYS' CLOTHING in Philadelphia, to which large daily additions are made of fresh goods, replacing those sold.
9th. For reasons already enumerated we can, and do sell clothing in every respect superior—surpassed by none, equalled by few—at prices guaranteed in all cases lower than the the lowest elsewhere, or the sale cancelled and money refunded.
10th. If buyers should for any cause become dissatisfied after a purchase is made, if reported within a reasonable time, we pledge ourselves, by exchange, refunding of money, or otherwise, to give full satisfaction in every case, and request that all such may be reported to us for adjustment.

CARD.—Our stock of Fall and Winter Clothing is full and complete, and selling rapidly, but is as rapidly replenished each day with fresh and desirable styles of new goods, purchased recently, for cash, at great sacrifices, enabling us to sell at prices lower than have been known for years. Congratulating our patrons upon the decline of prices, which enables us to offer superior garments at such low rates, we request the favor of a call.

THE PRINCE OF ADVERTISERS.—Not many papers which come to our Editorial sanctum that do not contain the advertisement of Hembold, the great "Buchu man," of New York. Beginning life a poor boy, he has risen to the position of one of the most extensive dealers in drugs and medicines in New York, by his perseverance under the most discouraging circumstances, and the free use of printers' ink. We have seen it stated that his expense for advertising for the year 1866, will not fall short of $150,000. He has the utmost faith in its benefits, or he would not venture such a fortune, which to many, seems like "throwing money to the winds;" but far differrent with him. He says he knows he will reap his money back, with more added. Advertisers and all others should give this suggestion a thought.—Daily Times, N. Y.

A GOOD SIGN.—According to the experience of old men, who draw their knowledge from the great book of Nature, backed by experience, it is evident that the coming season will be a fruitful one. According to immemorable tradition, if the snow of March cluster to the boughs of trees, it is a sure sign that the fruit trees will yield a bountiful harvest. We have noticed the storms of late, and find that the snow remains in the thick coatings on the trees; therefore, if the sign fails not, we shall be blessed with a plentiful supply of fruit. We suppose the late frosts have something to do with it, but it is more than probable that the March sign governs the May frosts.

RELIGIOUS—There will be services in the Lutheran Church next Sunday morning and evening, at the usual hour, by the Pastor, Rev. J. Q. McAttee.

ONE dollar looks like a very little sum to pay for a preparation that will effect such wonders as are always achieved by "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative," now so popular throughout the entire country. Let no one be without it. This is the only hair preparation that received the "first premium" of a silver medal at the State Fair in 1866.—Manchester (N. H.) Union.

—The Vicksburg negroes are developing great business talent. One of them recently called upon a debtor, gave him five minutes to settle his account, and when that time had expired, shot him dead.

MUSHROOM PERFUMES.—Of the swarm of inferior perfumes got up to compete with Phalon's "Night-Blooming Cereus," scarcely even the memory remains. They are literally forgotten, while the sales of that ne plus ultra of all fragrance constantly increases.—Winsted Herald.

THE NURSERY.—This little monthly magazine for youngest readers, for April, has been received. It cannot fail to please all its little readers. It is the best magazine, for children, published, and should be in every family. Price 1,50 a year. Address Jno. L. Shory, No. 15 Washington st., Boston, Mass.

PROSPECTUS
1868. "THE AGE," 1868
"THE AGE."
A Democratic Daily and Weekly Journal in Philadelphia.
The attention of the Democrats and Conservative-citizens of the country is called to the Daily and Weekly issues of this widely circulated journal. The dissemination of sound political doctrines should command the earnest attention of every true friend of the Union and the Constitution. The events of the past political year are full of significance. The uprising of The People in opposition to the destructive policy of Radicalism, clearly shows that the masses are determined to restore again to power the great Democratic party, every page of whose history is filled with the glory and prosperity of our common country. No more effectual method for presenting the Truth can be devised, than in circulating Democratic journals. It is the intention of the Proprietors of The Age to make it, in every way worthy of the support and confidence that have heretofore been extended to it. Improvements are contemplated in every department, and no pains or expense will be spared to keep it in the front rank of American journalism.
The Daily Age contains the latest intelligence from all parts of the world, with articles on Government, Politics, Trade, Finance, and all the current questions of the day; Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotation, Marine and Commercial Intelligence, Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence Legal Reports, Book Notices, Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music, Agricultural Matters, and discussions of whatever subjects are of general interest and importance. Besides Special Telegrams, it has all the dispatches of the Associated Press from every part of the United States, and also the Associated Press dispatches received by the Atlantic Cable; and the news from all parts of Europe brought by the steamers, is instantly telegraphed from whatever point the steamer first touches.
The Weekly Age will be a complete compendium of the news of the week, and besides the leading editorials from the Daily, will contain a large amount of interesting matter prepared expressly for the weekly issue. It will be in all respects a first-class family journal, particularly adapted to the Politician, the Farmer, the Merchant, the Family Circle, and the General Reader, having, in fact, every characteristic of a live newspaper. At an early day will be begun an intensely interesting serial, by one of the most popular and fascinating authors, and it is also the intention to publish, from week to week, in the course of the year, three or four of the best and latest novels.
Terms of the Daily.—One copy, one year, $9.00; six months, $5.00; three months, $2.50; for any less period, at the rate of one Dollar per month. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Daily, thirty cents per quarter, or one dollar and twenty cents per annum, to be prepaid at the office of delivery.
Terms of the Weekly.—One copy, one year, $2; five copies, one year, $9; ten copies one year, $17-50; twenty copies one year, $33. To clubs, where the papers are sent to one address, the following reduction will be made: Five copies, one year, $8.50, Ten copies, 1 year, $16.50; Twenty copies, one year, $30. A copy will be furnished gratis for each club of ten, or more, to one address, for one year. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Weekly, five cents, per quarter, or twenty cents per annum, to be prepaid at the office of delivery
The above terms will be rigidly adhered to. Drafts on Philadelphia, or Postoffice Orders, payable to the order of the Publishers, being safer, are preferable to any other mode of remittance All who send money by Express, must pre-pay Express charges. Specimen copies of the Daily and Weekly sent gratis, on application at this office. Advertisements inserted at moderate rates. Address WELSH & ROBB, 430 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. jan24w4.

ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGANS are still ahead of all competitors and stand unrivalled in POWER, PURITY OF TONE and BRILLIANCY, and all other points which go to make a first-class instrument.
The "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is the greatest of all modern improvements on reed instruments. It CHARMS and SURPRISES all who hear it, by its wonderful resemblance to the HUMAN VOICE. Do not confound this with the common tremolo in use. It is entirely different, and far superior to any other.
For sale wholesale and retail by
E. M. BRUCE,
18 N. Seventh Street, Philadelphia.
☞ Send for descriptive circular and price list.
The effect of your "Tremolo" is entirely new to me, and is certainly the best I ever heard.—GEO. W. MORGAN. [The first Organist of America.
No Tremolo has yet been invented that will in any degree compare with this for beauty of effect. In fact, it seems to me to be absolutely perfect.—WM. A. JOHNSON, Pipe Organ Builder.
Estey's Cottage Organs are without a superior for exceedingly quick articulation and round tone—the essential features in instruments of this class—GEO. JARDINE, Pipe Organ Builder.
The Cottage Organ is the best of its class I ever saw, and the best adapted for church music of any in use.—C. HEINTZ, Organist, Findlay, O.
I am much pleased with the Cottage Organ which I purchased from you; it combines sweetness and power in an unusual degree, and is quite a favorite in our family circle.—BISHOP SIMPSON.
We know no organs of the class which possess so many valuable qualities.—INDEPENDENT.
For the parlor, its sweetness is remarkable; for the church it has a power more organ-like than anything we have seen.—METHODIST.
Persons wishing to purchase an organ are requested to examine the Estey instruments now in use at the Presbyterian and Episcopal Churches, Bedford, Pa. jul26,'67

MEDICAL.—DR. A. S. SMITH, having resumed the Practice of Medicine, solicits a generous share of the patronage of the community. Office in his residence, at St Clairsville.
He would call the attention of the public, and to those more immediately interested to the following: His health being too delicate to bear much of the fatigues and exposures consequent on general practice, he has adopted a speciality in the profession.
Soon after commencing practice, some twenty years since, he was attracted by the almost universality of female complaints, both in the married and single state. Partly from natural inclination, and in order to obtain success in practice, these complaints were made the subject of incessant study. These alterations, displacements and deranged functions of the organs peculiar to the female, are owing to that refined sense of delicacy on the part of the female, who, ignorant of the consequences, prefers to suffer in silence rather than expose her situation. Seldom cured by the general practitioner, who is prevented by this delicacy from acquiring by experience that tact and skill necessary to discriminate the exact change present, and contents himself with prescribing for the deranged functions, or overlooking the cause, simply for attendant nervous disorders, founding his prescriptions on a Plethoric Anaemonic state of the general system and the result is no benefit, as the number of the long suffering females bears ample testimony. Believing that he has, from long and special attention paid to them, acquired that skill in discriminating and experience in treating, he solicits the suffering to give him a call. No charges for consultation or examination. Visits made to all parts of the county.
Applications for medicines can be made in writing by accompanying stamp for return letter.—Medicines sent when desired. TERMS invariably cash for all medicines and instruments.

CULVERWELL, M. D., Author of the "Green Book, &c.
The world-renowned author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of Self-Abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. 1867.—"THE WORLD."—1867.
The attention of the public is invited to the claims of "The World" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merits consists in its character as an enterprising and trustworthy newspaper.
The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requsite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments, which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD accepts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance. In politics, THE WORLD will continue to be the bold advocate of a Liberal, Progressive Democracy. The unflinching champion of Freedom, Justice, Order and Constitutional Rights. The inspiration of its politics is Freedom restrained by Justice; or, to speak more strictly, Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the office of justice being merely to protect freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of meddlesome temperance laws; in his Right to make any money bargains he thinks proper, in spite of foolish usury laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to assemble for discussion of grievances; Freedom of all local communities to manage their local affairs without central interference; Freedom in every section of the country from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections; this large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of THE WORLD, which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race.
In its accurate Commercial Intelligence and careful, reliable market reports, THE WORLD will continue to maintain its present high reputation. A paper published in the commercial metropolis is naturally looked to for authentic information relating to trade, commerce and finance; and this being a feature in which the THE WORLD prides itself, it boldly challenges comparison with every journal in the metropolis.
